Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 22 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and sunny, cloudy around east coasts to start.

Today:
Dry and bright across much of the country with some sunny spells. Cloudy at first around the east coasts with a few spots of rain here. Cloudier with a few showers across the northwest at times.

Tonight:
Clear skies during the evening but clouding over from the west during the night with rain spreading east, reaching east coasts by dawn. Strengthening southwesterly winds overnight, gales in west.

Tuesday:
A wet day for most on Tuesday, perhaps Edinburgh and the Moray coast seeing some drier conditions. Strong southwesterly winds for all with gales or severe gales around the coasts.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Further rain in the south on Wednesday, drier and brighter in the north. Windy with the chance of a shower in the west on Thursday. Dry and bright on Friday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.